INTERPRETER

INJURIES/CONCUSSION PROTOCOL:

If there are no trainers or medical/personnel at field What are we to do if there is a head injury?

Ref should not allow player back onto field

If Coach says s/he is a certified medical personnel: ASK FOR DOCUMENTATION !!!!!

Err on the side of safety

If player is removed from play due to referee's determination of UNFIT to play
The New State Interpreter says the player is not to return to the field for the rest of the match

Stop play and clock if you see the symptoms. Including Goalkeeper. It is OK for Coach to call time out after injury. Player can come back in after time out ends.

GOOD PLAN IF THE KEEPER WAS INJURED (OK to suggest T.O. to Keeper's Coach)

If there is a major injury, this is to be reported to the Assignor. Either referee may send the report.

HANDLING

Bert C. Sent out a very informative video.

Key to making call is to be in the right spot. 2 Man system is difficult due to chores we have to handle.

Keys to Call:

Is arm, hand in a natural position?

Is defender making body "BIGGER?"

Is arm on body (protection)?

Is there DELIBERATE movement or was movement Reflexive (Protection)

Is the ball kicked/hit INTO hand/arm without defender able to get out of way?

Is the defender making a deliberate play for ball so arm/hand is part of play?

(think sliding tackle with arm/hand down below body in between body and ground)

TIME MANAGEMENT

CLOCK IS STOPPED FOR:

Goal

YC/RC issuance

Penalty Kick

Injury

Stopped by referee for certain reasons

Ball out of play (Notify Coaches First)

CLOCK IS RESTARTED WHEN;

Ball is properly put in play

ON PK- Clock started when ball is kicked towards goal.

BALL HANDLERS

Rules say

Home Team SHALL supply ball handlers

Visitors MAY supply Ball Handlers

If no Ball Retrievers and ball far out of play

Referee may stop clock (After first notifying coaches)

If home team is losing suggested that clock not be stopped

IF HOME TEAM LEADING AND INTENTIONALLY KICKING BALL FAR OFF FIELD

Talk to coaches and captains that continued delay will be carded

Report flagrant use of delay to assignors

DISCUSSIONS

PK situation Ref whistled when Non-Kicker for attacking team encroached into box before kick was taken. Non-Kicker took off shirt and went to bench without Ref's permission. What card/s to be shown?

Only YC for taking off shirt. No YC/RC for leaving field
Rationale: When Player receives YC Player to leave field anyway.

OK Celebration or Excessive Celebration?

Player receives a long cross from teammate in box and heads in goal.
Player does flip in front of his bench. Mike Gardner (R) says no card. Bert Czuchra (AR) says yellow (3 man system for BHS game)
What is right decision/result?

Bert C. says Excessive celebration.
Mike G. says Single flip, in front of own bench, immediate reaction to Goal.

Consensus was that because there was nothing done in front of Opponents, Opponents did not feel taunted, immediate and not repeated, NO Card.
Mike G. also said "I did not see what the YC would get me in return. I give cards to get something: control of player, control of game, etc. There was nothing I would get by giving a card to that player"

When to enforce 10 yards at restart

Key points to remember

When to exercise: At request of kicking team
Defenders utilizing it as a tactic to delay restart

Observations Wall not moving away or is it moving away

What to do

Enforcement addressed in pre-game with captains
If asked for, get distance restart with whistle

If encroachment, YC after warning
